

How to Protect your Family & Money and enjoy your Retirement

Are you worried that your home might end up being used to fund your long term care as you get older?

Are you confused at how complex pensions have become?

Are you concerned about how long your pension will now last?

Lazenby's Financial Services and Pudsey Legal have teamed up to deliver this joint workshop.

In the first part of the session Alan will equip you with actual tools that you can use to see how long your money will last based on longevity and the assets that are available to you.

Information provided by Lazenby's Financial Services Ltd

In the 2nd part of the workshop local expert Solicitor Andrew Gullett, who is a member of Solicitors for the Elderly, will tell you about the following:

- How you can potentially protect part of your home against care fees and safeguard your children's inheritance.
- How you can protect yourself should you be unable to manage your own affairs.

Information provided by Pudsey Legal.
